SOLIDARITY AND HOPE

Global solidarity is not only a moral imperative, it is in everyone's interests
- UN chief

“My central message is clear”, he spelled out: “We are in an unprecedented situation and the normal rules no longer apply”. And although COVID-19 is killing people and attacking economies, by managing the crisis well, “we can steer the recovery toward a more sustainable and inclusive path”, he said.

GERMANS SING BELLA CIAO FROM ROOFTOPS IN SOLIDARITY WITH ITALY

People in Bamberg, Germany, took their rooftops and windows to sing 'Bella ciao'.

SOLIDARITY

and hope around the world

Christian faithful in India are committed to serving the nation in this moment of crisis created by the coronavirus pandemic, reported Fides News Agency.

- young people contact the elderly
- Christian communities and associations prepare food, distributing it to the homeless or needy people.

Barcelona's street vendors most of whom come from sub-Saharan Africa, face a particularly uncertain future as the government-imposed lockdown forbids non-essential economic activity.

No longer allowed to sell their wares, some street vendors have joined forces with a local clothing company to sew masks and aprons for health workers
